APPOINTMENTS.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to make the following appointments:—

11th April, 1903.

LAVINGTON CUMBERBATCH, of Sidney, Esquire, to be Collector of Votes for the North Victoria Electoral District.

16th April, 1903.

CLARENCE DUDLEY BLACKWOOD, of the City of Nelson, Esquire, to be a Clerk in the office of the Mining Recorder at the said city, and a Deputy of the Mining Recorder for the Nelson Mining Division.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY.

11th April, 1903.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to accept the resignations of Messrs. C. NORDSTROM and H. O. BERGH, of Quatsino, of the office of Justice of the Peace.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY'S OFFICE,
16th April, 1903.

HIS HONOUR the Lieutenant-Governor directs that under the authority conferred by Section 93 of Chapter 56 of the Revised Statutes, 1897, being the "Supreme Court Act," the following be made a Rule of Court, to take effect from the publication thereof in the British Columbia Gazette.

By Command.

W. W. B. McINNES,

"725A: The preceding rules as to preliminary examination of parties for discovery and as to production and inspection of documents shall, as far as practicable, apply to parties residing out of British Columbia, and in such cases the Court or a Judge may, on application by way of summons, order the examination of the parties to be taken at such place and before such person or persons and in such manner as may seem just and convenient, and service of the order for examination, production or inspection, and of all other papers necessary to obtain the benefit of the provisions of the said Rules shall be sufficient if made on the solicitor of the party in the same manner as other papers in the action are served on the solicitor, unless the Court or Judge makes other order to the contrary; and if there is no such solicitor, or he cannot for any reason be served, the Court or Judge may order the service in any other manner to be mentioned in the order in that behalf."

NOTICE is hereby given that under the powers conferred by section 20 of the "Provincial Elections Act" and by section 20 of the "Redistribution Act, 1898," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to order that the date for holding a Court of Revision for the purpose of revising the Register of Voters for the North Victoria Electoral District be postponed from Monday the fourth day of May, 1903, until Monday the sixth day of July, 1903, in order that due notice of the holding of the said Court may be given, as required by sub-section (f) of section 11 of the "Provincial Elections Act."

Provincial Secretary.

AMENDED CERTIFICATE.

PART IV., "WATER CLAUSES CONSOLIDATION ACT, 1897."

(1.) This is to certify that "The Kamloops Irrigation and Power Company, Limited," specially incorporated within the meaning of Part IV. of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897," on the 13th day of September, 1900, has submitted its undertaking to the Lieutenant-Governor in Council for approval, and that the said undertaking, as shown by the documents and plan filed, has been approved, and that the same is as follows:—

The construction of a dam in Jamieson Creek, an affluent of the North Thompson River, in the District of Yale, about one and one-half miles from the said river; the construction of a main canal, approximating eighteen miles in length, from such dam along the valleys of the North Thompson and Thompson Rivers, at a fall of one hundred and sixty-one feet from the intake to the point of discharge; the construction of certain lateral ditches, with a view to the irrigation of the lands along the route of the canal in the district within which the Company propose to operate; the acquisition of seven thousand acres, more or less, and their division into small holdings to induce settlement and the cultivation of such fruits, vegetables and crops as can be profitably produced.

The amount of unrecorded water applied for by the Company is one thousand four hundred inches, to be taken from Jamieson Creek, flowing into the North

Thompson River on the west side thereof, about twelve miles north of the City of Kamloops. That for general irrigation purposes the Company will also acquire with the aforesaid lands three hundred inches of water from Bonnard Creek, three hundred inches of water from Dry, or McQueen Creek, three hundred inches of water from Dairy Creek, and three hundred inches of water from Jamieson Creek.

(2.) And this is further to certify that the Company proposes to commence its undertaking by the construction of the said main canal.

(3.) And this is further to certify that the amount of the capital of the Company which will be duly subscribed for the carrying out of its undertaking is hereby fixed at the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($150,000).

(4.) And this is further to certify that ten per cent. (10 %) of this amount is to be paid up before the Company commences the construction of that portion of its undertaking mentioned in paragraph two, or exercises any of the powers mentioned in Part IV. of the "Water Clauses Consolidation Act, 1897"; that twenty-five per cent. (25 %) of the balance of the said amount is to be paid up two months from the date hereof, and the total amount of the said amount four months from the date hereof. And the dates within which such undertaking and works are to be commenced and completed are fixed at three months and twelve months, respectively, from the 14th day of November, 1902.

Dated this 25th day of March, A. D. 1903.

W. W. B. McINNES,
mh26 Clerk, Executive Council.

DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

EXAMINATION FOR ASSAYERS FOR LICENCE TO PRACTISE IN BRITISH COLUMBIA.

IN ACCORDANCE with section 12 of the Bureau of Mines Act, examinations for efficiency in the practice of assaying will be held at Nelson, B. C., on 27th April, 1903, and on such following days as may be found necessary.

Examinations will cover the following subjects, and candidates must be prepared to be examined in all of these subjects:—

(a.) A knowledge of the principles of inorganic chemistry.

(b.) SAMPLING:

Sampling of ores or furnace products and the reduction and preparation of sample for assay, including also the melting of gold dust and sampling of bar for assay.

(c.) QUALITATIVE DETERMINATION:

The qualitative determination of the common elements in ores and furnace products.

(d.) QUANTITATIVE DETERMINATION—ASSAYING:

Bullion—Gold bullion, for gold and silver;
Copper " for copper, gold and silver
Lead-copper bullion, for lead, copper, gold and silver.

Coal:

Determination of moisture, volatile combustible matter, fixed carbon, ash and sulphur.

Ores and furnace products:

Fire assays—

Gold, silver and lead.

Wet, and combined wet and fire assays—

Gold and silver, by combined method.

Copper, by electrolytic, colorimetric and volumetric (cyanide or other approved) methods.

Nickel, by electrolytic method.

Iron, lead, lime, zinc, sulphur and silica, by any approved wet methods.

The mineralogical determination of a number of simple mineral substances.

ENTRANCE FOR EXAMINATION.

Entrance for any examination must be made in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Examiners, at least seven days before the date set for beginning of examination, and must be accompanied by the prescribed fee ($15).

CERTIFICATE.

A certificate of efficiency in assaying will, upon payment of the prescribed fee ($15), be issued to each successful candidate, which certificate shall be considered as a licence to practise assaying in British Columbia; and notice is hereby given that only those holding such certificate of proficiency or licence will be allowed to act as assayers in this Province, under penalty, as provided by the Act.

EXEMPTION FROM EXAMINATION.

In accordance with sub-section (2) of section 12 of the Act, graduates of certain Schools of Mines and Colleges may be exempt from examinations, and may, upon satisfying the examiners, as provided in the Act, receive such certificate of competency or licence, upon payment of the fee therefor ($15.00).

The examination will consist chiefly of the practical assaying of samples, and while the Department of Mines will provide all the apparatus and chemicals usually necessary, it will not undertake to provide any special or unusual appliances or chemicals which might be called for, and if a candidate should require such he will have to provide them at his own expense.

Candidates must provide themselves with such platinum ware and sets of weights as they may require.

The Department of Mines will make no charge for the use of chemicals or apparatus, but a candidate will be charged for all breakages or unnecessary loss caused by him.

Any additional information desired may be obtained from H. Carmichael, Secretary, Board of Examiners, Victoria.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 59.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867," whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint Stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicants, such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in the District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest District in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

57. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with the notices published. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House a sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

60. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by rule 59, also at the same time and in the same manner, give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a draw-bridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

61. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills:—Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be re-cast by the promoters and re-printed at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

65. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Two hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By new Rule 65A, passed on the 2nd April, 1901 (see Journals, 1901, page 58), a model form of Railway Bill is adopted.

By 65B all Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

Dated 5th November, 1901.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "The Elk Lumber and Manufacturing Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into two thousand five hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

The time of the existence of the Company is fifty years.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 20th day of March, one thousand nine hundred and three.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on business in the Province of British Columbia and throughout the Dominion of Canada as pulp and paper manufacturers, timber merchants, sawmill proprietors, lumbermen and manufacturers of wooden ware in all or any of its branches, and to buy, sell, grow, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export and deal in saw-logs, timber, lumber, wood, pulp and paper of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used or forms a component part; to carry on the business of general merchants, wholesale and retail, and establish shops or stores, and to purchase and vend general merchandise; to build, acquire, possess and operate factories, grist mills, flour mills, saw-mills, pulp mills and paper mills, and machinery of all kinds, and to purchase, sell and deal in lands, timber berths, grain, flour and breadstuffs:

(b.) To acquire, by purchase, record or otherwise, water powers, water records, or water privileges; to construct, equip, operate, maintain, manage, carry out or control any roads, ways, water power, reservoirs, dams, aqueducts, canals, sluices, flumes, tramways, logging railways, operated by steam, electricity or other mechanical power, telegraph and telephone lines, electric supply lines, bridges, wharves, booms, timber slides, booming grounds, manufactories, warehouses, hydraulic works, electric works, houses, shops, store buildings, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests:

(c.) To acquire, operate or carry on the business of a power company in all its branches; to generate, accumulate, distribute and supply electricity for heat, light and power in connection with the Company's works and operations, and to dispose of compressed air, electricity, electric and other power for profit for public or private purposes, and to deal generally in any form of developed power that may be applied or required:

(d.) To acquire, hold, charter, operate, alienate, convey and build steamers and steam tugs, barges or other vessels, or any interests or shares therein, requisite for the purposes of the Company's operations, and to let out to hire or charter the same :

(e.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above, or calculated directly or indirectly to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property or rights for the time being :

(f.) To purchase, take or lease or in exchange or otherwise acquire any timber lands, or other lands in fee or otherwise, and also timber and timber limits by lease, licence or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and generally to acquire any real or personal property, and notwithstanding any director or directors, shareholder or shareholders, of the Company is or are interested therein, respectively ; and to pay for the same, respectively, either in cash or in debentures or in shares of the Company, or partly in one mode and partly in the other :

(g.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, and which is suitable for the purposes of this Company :

(h.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking, lands, property, estate, chattels and effects of this Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as this Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company :

(j.) To amalgamate with any other company, now or hereafter incorporated, having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company :

(k.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patent or patent rights, containing any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited rights to use, which may seem calculated to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to use, exercise, develop and turn to account the property or rights so acquired :

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure payment of money in such manner and form as this Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures or debenture stock, charged upon any or all of the Company's property, present or future or both :

(m.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments :

(n.) To act as factors or agents in relation to the purchase, sale, receipt and disposition of all kinds of timber, logs, lumber, pulp, paper or other articles in the manufacture of which wood or timber is used or forms a component part :

(o.) To obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling this Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modifications of this Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice this Company's interests.

(p.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation and registration of the Company, or in or about the promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business :

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of this Company :

(r.) To distribute any of the property of this Company among the members in specie :

(s.) To procure this Company to be registered, licensed or recognised in any Province or Territory in the Dominion of Canada, or in any Province, County or place :

(t.) To do all such other acts as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority.

(g.) Patent Number 36,281, issued by the United States of America to William Thomas Watson, for trade mark for car fenders, dated 16th April, 1901; and also to acquire all rights which can be assigned by the said William T. Watson under any future patents which may be granted to him as the inventor of any improvements upon the life guards already invented by him, or in other inventions of a like character, or of any kind or description which the Company may agree with the said Watson to obtain by assignment, conveyance, or otherwise from him :

(2.) To acquire from any other person or persons, any rights which can be assigned under any patent granted for the invention of any appliance, attachment, or part to be used in the construction, maintenance and operation of tramcars or street cars operated by electricity or other motive power :

(3.) To purchase, manufacture, use, operate, sell, assign, transfer and otherwise deal with any and all kinds and descriptions of inventions or appliances of a life-saving character connected with the use and operation of street cars, or tramcars operated by electricity, or any other motive power :

(4.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and hold any lands, factories, manufacturing establishments, houses, buildings, or premises, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, or other real and personal property, and use, operate and turn the same to account, and to sell, lease, sub-let or otherwise dispose of the same, or any part thereof, or any interest therein :

(5.) To purchase, lease, hire, build and operate mills, factories, or manufacturing establishments of any kind for the purpose of manufacturing, constructing, selling or using any machinery, invention, appliance, or article of commerce of any description connected with or which may be conveniently manufactured, used, or dealt with in connection with the manufacture or sale of the said, or any appliance of a life-saving character connected with the operation of street cars or tramcars, or which may be used in connection with, or incidental to, the business of the Company :

(6.) To carry on the business of proprietors, merchants, manufacturers of and dealers in all kinds of street or tramcar appliances, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade, or material used in the construction, manufacture or operation of street or tramcars, or any attachments, appliances or conveniences connected with the construction, building, or operation of street or tramcars :

(7.) To construct, carry out, acquire by purchase or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, work, control, and superintend any mills, electrical works, telephones, factories, warehouses and other works and conveniences which the company may think directly or indirectly conducive to any of its objects, and to contribute or otherwise assist in the construction, maintenance, development, working, control and management thereof :

(8.) To use steam, water, electricity, or any other power as a motive power or otherwise :

(9.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company, as the Company may think fit :

(10.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use and grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions and the like, conferring an exclusive, or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company :

(11.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, or association or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company :

(12.) To enter into partnership, or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(13.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(14.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(15.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(16.) To lend or invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advances for the purposes of this Company on stocks, shares and other securities, and on property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(17.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate, perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(18.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government (Dominion or Provincial), or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects, or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with, or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(19.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(20.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(21.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(22.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing, or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(23.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or any part of the property and rights of the Company (including the granting of powers to work any patents of the Company upon any terms), with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks or obligations of any other Company. mh26

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897"

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Lenz & Leiser, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into fifteen thousand shares of ten dollars ($10.00) each.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 27th day of March, one thousand nine hundred and three.

[L.S.] S. Y. WOOTTON,
Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(1.) To acquire and take over as going concerns the several businesses carried on at the City of Victoria, British Columbia, by Lenz & Leiser, as general dry goods merchants, together with the good-will thereof, and with a view thereto to enter into and carry into effect an agreement which has already been prepared, and is expressed to be made between Moses Lenz and Sophia Leiser, of the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, of the one part, and the Company of the other part, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been endorsed with the signatures of the subscribers hereto:

(2.) To carry on the business of wholesale and retail dry goods and clothing merchants and manufacturers, and the business of drapers and furnishing and general warehousemen in all its branches:

(3.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of silk merchants, silk weavers, cotton spinners, cloth manufacturers, furriers, haberdashers, hosiers, manufacturers, importers and wholesale and retail dealers of and in textile fabrics of all kinds, milliners, dress-makers, tailors, hatters, clothiers, outfitters, gloves, lace manufacturers, feather dressers, boot and shoe makers, manufacturers and importers, and wholesale and retail dealers of and in leather goods, and other household fittings and utensils, ornaments, stationery and fancy goods, dealers in provisions, drugs, chemicals, and other articles and commodities of personal and household use and consumption, and generally of and in all manufactured goods, materials, provisions and produce:

(4.) To carry on the business of a wholesale and retail general supply company and establish branches thereof, and to transact all kinds of commission and agency business:

(5.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(6.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(7.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on, or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company:

(8.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as directly or indirectly to benefit this Company:

(9.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(10.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(11.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, or in exchange, hire or otherwise acquire, any real or personal property, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant and stock-in-trade:

(12.) To construct, maintain and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(13.) To borrow or raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present or future), including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem or pay off any such securities:

(14.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered, or to be rendered, in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(15.) To draw, make, accept, indorse, discount, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(16.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any foreign country or place:

(17.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(18.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1897."

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that the "Letson & Burpee, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1897," as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into fifteen hundred shares of one hundred dollars each.

The time of the existence of the Company is fifty years.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this 11th day of April, one thousand nine hundred and three.

[L.S.]

S. Y. WOOTTON,

Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as and from the 1st day of April, 1903, the business now carried on by J. M. K. Letson and Frank W. Burpee, at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, under the firm name of "Letson & Burpee," as machine manufacturers, and to adopt and carry into effect, with or without modification, an agreement, which has already been entered into between them and David Stevenson Wallbridge, as Trustee for this Company, and to carry on the said business and any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with said business:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease or otherwise acquire and hold any lands, rights of way, shops, factories, yards, buildings, machinery, plant, stock-in-trade and other real and personal property, and to equip, operate, use and turn the same to account, and to sell, lease, sub-let or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(c.) To manufacture mining, milling, marine, dredging, salmon canning (in all its branches), and other machinery, and generally to carry on the business of mechanical engineers, machinists, boiler-makers, blacksmiths, iron and brass founders and pattern makers in all branches:

(d.) To act as agents and importers for the sale of machinery and engineering supplies of all kinds:

(e.) To build and repair steam-boats and other vessels:

(f.) To use steam, water, electricity or any other power as a motive power or otherwise:

(g.) To acquire, hold, buy, sell, lease or mortgage any lands or premises required for the purposes of the Company:

(h.) To erect, build and maintain buildings, warehouses, workshops, sidings, shipways, wharves and other works:

(i.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use and grant licences in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring an exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use, or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property, and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm or corporation possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorised to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated directly or indirectly to benefit the Company, and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions or otherwise, with any person, firm or corporation carrying on, or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorised to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly or indirectly benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist, any such person, firm or corporation; and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, firm or corporation, and to sell, hold, re-issue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To sell and dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and either for cash or on such terms as the Company may deem advisable, or for shares, debentures or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem directly or indirectly calculated to benefit this Company:

(o.) To lend or invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advances for the purposes of this Company, on stock, shares and other securities, and on property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing repayment of the same and the interest thereon (if any), or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, and its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, draw, accept and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(q.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government (Dominion or Provincial), or any authority, municipal, local or otherwise, that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise and comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges and concessions:

(r.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or Legislature for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(s.) To apply for, accept, take, hold and sell, dispose of and deal with shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, obligations or other securities of any other company, person or firm:

(t.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members thereof in specie:

(u.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of any shares in the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with the undertaking, or any part of the property and rights of the Company (including the granting of powers to work patents of the Company upon any terms), with power to accept as the consideration therefor any shares, stocks or obligations of any other company:

(w.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognised in any other Province or Provinces of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere, and to carry on business in such other Province or Provinces and elsewhere:

(x.) To do all other acts and things which may be deemed to be in any way expedient, necessary, incidental or otherwise conducive to the attainment of all or any of the above objects. ap16
